

Eleanor Roosevelt High School AVID Application

AVID is a college prep elective that prepares students for four-year universities. The curriculum features writing, inquiry, collaboration, reading, note-taking, study skills, and college /career/motivational activities. AVID students have access to college tutors in class, college and university campus visits, and representatives from various colleges and universities. Students must commit to AVID guidelines as well as maintain good attendance, citizenship and have a GPA of 3.0 or above.
